Dear Administrator:

Pursuant to Section 26.01 (a) of the Texas Property Tax Code, the accompanying certification document is your 2010 Certified Appraisal Roll. As required by Section 26.01 (a) and 26.01 (c), there two certified amounts provided. The first amount is the Net Taxable value of all properties in your jurisdiction that ARE NOT under protest before the Nueces County Appraisal Review Board. The second figure is the Chief Appraiser's estimate of the 2010 Net Taxable value of properties in your jurisdiction that ARE presently under protest before the Nueces County Appraisal Review Board. The total of these two figures is the 2010 NET TOTAL TAXABLE VALUE for your jurisdiction.

In addition to the certification document attached, I have included a complete appraisal roll listing, in electronic media form (CD), which lists taxable property located in your jurisdiction, as well as an Assessment Grand Totals Report, which summarizes the value and exemption figures that were used to arrive at the net certified values.

Please do not distribute this appraisal roll as it contains information kept confidential per Section 22.27 of the Texas Property Tax Code.

N.C. Emergency Svcs Dist #1

July 22, 2010

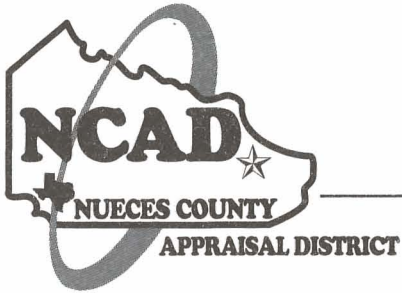

Dear Administrator:

Pursuant to Section 26.01 (a) of the Texas Property Tax Code, the accompanying certification document is your 2010 Certified Appraisal Roll. As required by Section 26.01 (a) and 26.01 (c), there two certified amounts provided. The first amount is the Net Taxable value of all properties in your jurisdiction that ARE NOT under protest before the Nueces County Appraisal Review Board. The second figure is the Chief Appraiser's estimate of the 2010 Net Taxable value of properties in your jurisdiction that ARE presently under protest before the Nueces County Appraisal Review Board. The total of these two figures is the 2010 NET TOTAL TAXABLE VALUE for your jurisdiction.

In addition to the certification document attached, I have included a complete appraisal roll listing, in electronic media form (CD), which lists taxable property located in your jurisdiction, as well as an Assessment Grand Totals Report, which summarizes the value and exemption figures that were used to arrive at the net certified values.

Please do not distribute this appraisal roll as it contains information kept confidential per Section 22.27 of the Texas Property Tax Code.

Dear Administrator:

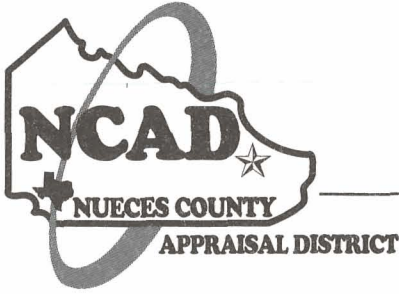

Pursuant to Section 26.01 (a) of the Texas Property Tax Code, the accompanying certification document is your 2010 Certified Appraisal Roll. As required by Section 26.01 (a) and 26.01 (c), there two certified amounts provided. The first amount is the Net Taxable value of all properties in your jurisdiction that ARE NOT under protest before the Nueces County Appraisal Review Board. The second figure is the Chief Appraiser's estimate of the 2010 Net Taxable value of properties in your jurisdiction that ARE presently under protest before the Nueces County Appraisal Review Board. The total of these two figures is the 2010 NET TOTAL TAXABLE VALUE for your jurisdiction.

In addition to the certification document attached, I have included a complete appraisal roll listing, in electronic media form (CD), which lists taxable property located in your jurisdiction, as well as an Assessment Grand Totals Report, which summarizes the value and exemption figures that were used to arrive at the net certified values.

Please do not distribute this appraisal roll as it contains information kept confidential per Section 22.27 of the Texas Property Tax Code.
